About us

Mahmoud Sharawi Chewing Gum Factory was founded in 2004 in King Abdullah II Industrial Estate - Sahab in Amman, Jordan by Eng. Mahmoud Sharawi who learned, gained experience and knowledge through his father the late AbdulHakim Sharawi the founder of the first chewing gum factory in Jordan.

Our gum has became one of the fastest growing parts of the confectionery industry because of ever increasing innovation which is founded on meeting real consumer needs. Our local focus is on developing great new products, convenient packaging. Globally we focus on ensuring that our chewing gum continues to meet the needs of consumers and raise awareness of the benefits of gum.

Mahmoud Sharawi Chewing Gum was able to spread in most of the Middle East countries, Canada and the US .

Our products have proven their quality by having ISO 22000:2005, HACCP Certificate which were the results of having talented and hardworking labor, using the best technologies in production and the best raw materials in order to meet our customer's expectations.
